Lets loop back to see what your expectation are from the Command Centre now that there is an official [REDACTED] I am ready to step up and help however we can. I have a couple of vacant work stations if you would be interested in having someone in the CMD CTR.

Good morning gents....as I'm sure you're also experiencing in your areas..... information is coming in more now fast and furious as this convoy gets closer.

I spoke to our [REDACTED] folks last nite and understand that Kevin K. and George B. seem to be taking the brunt of it.

Though we could chat this morning about perhaps using the Command Center as the hub for all the information coming in. And the source for getting the necessary information out.

And then maybe bring in the sections heads of [REDACTED], Command Center, Crime Analysts, Special Events this afternoon to discuss further.

Thoughts?

FYI...

In all likelihood I will be called into the 0900 meeting to discuss our steps. I spoke to Steve and advised him of our meeting at 1230 today and the steps we are taking to have e a coordinated approach.

Good morning Trish and Steve

In the last 24 hours we have had the following info/intel/incidents:

2. The below email from an Ottawa resident who is seeing online postings from what he calls extreme right wing elements calling for violence at the event
 3. Info from our Corp Comms and OPA President Skoff that there is a disinformation campaign from the counter demonstration element targeting OPS and OPA as being complicit in support of the trucker demonstration

4. A male counter demonstrator calling into our Comms Center threatening to attack our officers and facilities
Yet our briefing note as of last night says that there is no intelligence to indicate that this demo straying will be violent?
Please review all available info/intel/incidents and ensure we have the most accurate threat assessment and the most appropriate operations plan for the event.
Let's discuss further at the 9am.

Dear Sirs,

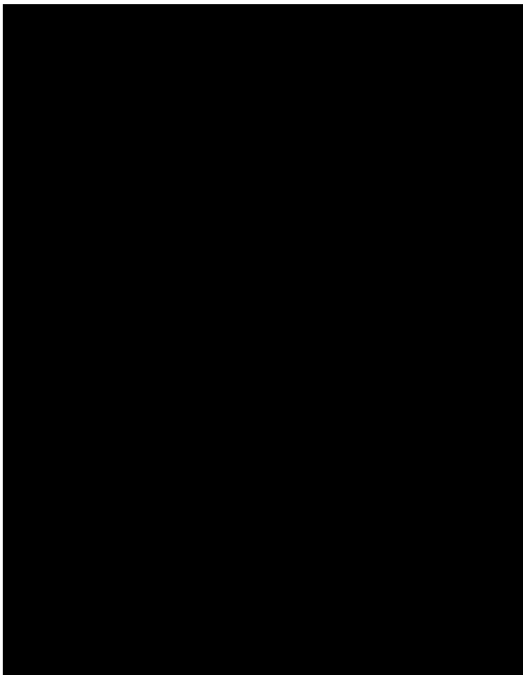

I lay awake tonight as I read Twitter posts from the Extreme right vowing attacks on Rideau Hall this weekend. Some are calling for action akin to the happenings in Washington on Capitol Hill. I understand the right to peaceful protest but I am writing as a very concerned citizen as we are not hearing any reassurances from the city or policing regarding the safety of residents surrounding these vulnerable and targeted spots. I live at [REDACTED] Directly across from a gated entrance to Rideau hall. It is one of 3 entrances and the only one without significant imposing security. I am terrified about what may happen on my street this weekend and the safety of my 6 and 8 year old children who will be in our home. I am reading threats of violence, weapons, arson etc. I am sure that there will be ample protection inside Rideau hall but will there be protection for those of us in this close perimeter? Will emergency services even be able to come down our street if there is an attempt to block the street as currently with the snow the traffic can only pass in single file.

I am hoping that none of this comes to fruition but in the mean time I am deeply afraid and do not even know how to begin to prepare for what may happen and am seeking advice and reassurance.

Kind regards,

[REDACTED]

Once truckers consume the city of Ottawa parking may become a major issue.

I happen to have insider information that there is loads of free parking at Rideau Hall and subsequent cottage. 🤔

If the truckers are smart, they'll make sure they have an Ottawa city parade permit in advance, otherwise @OttawaPolice can refuse to let them exit 417 Trans Canada Highway and enter Ottawa. The truckers should also surround @JustinTrudeau's residence @RideauHall @TWisonOttawa
